

Sex, the Gospel and the Revolution: is there a better story?

The sex revolution's narrative of freedom and authenticity has brought about far-reaching changes in attitudes to sex, marriage and gender. In this challenging context, how can Christians who hold to biblical teaching begin to craft a narrative that wins hearts as well as minds?

Tuesday 23rd October 2018
at 7.30pm (Refreshments from 7pm)
at St. Bart's Church
1 King Edward Road, Bath BA2 3PB

Glynn Harrison was formerly Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Bristol, where he was also a practicing consultant psychiatrist. He has served on General Synod and as a central member of the Crown Nominations Commission. He speaks widely on issues of faith, psychology and neuroscience. His recent book 'A Better Story: God, sex and human flourishing' is published by IVP/SPCK.

Bath & Wells Diocesan Evangelical Fellowship