

Where does music fit into the service?

– why and how of singing in services

Philip Percival (Emu Music)

Philip is the Executive Director of Emu Music, a role he juggles with that of Music Director at St Ebbe's Church, Oxford. He is passionate about seeing Church musicians trained well and teaches the Bible and practical skills at conferences and seminars around the world. He is author of Then Sings My Soul, a book about Biblical music ministry for every Christian. He also writes songs, and is perhaps best known for We Are His People and the music for Consider Christ and Never Alone. Philip studied theology at Moore College, Sydney, and has a Masters degree from Oxford University.
