Simon Austen is rector of St. Leonards Church in Exeter. He came to know Jesus after hearing about him on a summer camp as a teenager and, after studying and teaching Biology, Simon was ordained at Wycliffe Hall in Oxford and was curate in Buckinghamshire. He then became chaplain at Stowe School, Buckingham and then vicar of a church in Carlisle. He's been at St. Leonard's since 2013. Simon is also Chairman of the Titus Trust. He is married to Fiona and they have three grown up children. Simon is author of "Teaching Ephesians - From text to message".

Who are we to be in this materialistic age? Our identity, Ephesians tells us, can only be found in Christ. The spiritual blessings that we receive can only be found in him. We are chosen and raised in him. We form together to be the church in him. Ephesians paints for us a glorious picture of who we are and what the church is meant to be as we seek to teach others with these timeless truths.

This day is open to everyone, and we will all benefit from learning together.
